

Management Consulting Services Program

Assisting member special districts with planning, public & media relations, human resource management, policy development, and best practices

SDAO members are encouraged to take advantage of our Management Consulting Services Program. This program offers special districts assistance in a variety of critical issues including planning, public and media relations, human resource management, policy development, and best practices.

Member districts are eligible for up to eight hours of free consulting services provided by a team of staff consultants working under SDAO's prearranged fee schedule and direction. After the eight hours of free service is exhausted, members will have the option of continuing consulting services at an hourly rate.

Consultants are available to provide help in the following areas of expertise:

- Administrative/Management Coaching
- Assistance with District Manager Recruitment and Screening
- Board/Management Roles and Responsibilities
- Cooperative Services
- District Formation/Mergers/Consolidations
- Financial Management and Practices
- General Problem Solving
- Interim Management Services
- Strategic Planning
